Introduction

1.1 Blanford Mere Nursery and Primary School is committed to equality and valuing diversity and actively supports practices that promote genuine equality of opportunity for all staff and students.

1.2 The school is committed to promoting a positive and diverse culture in which all staff and students are valued and supported to fulfil their potential irrespective of any protected characteristic

1.3 The school recognises its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and are committed to promoting the equality and diversity of all those we work with especially our employees, students and visitors. We oppose all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination, bullying and harassment and will make every effort to comply with the requirements of the Equality Act 2010 and its subsequent provisions.

1.4 The following groups have been identified as key recipients in terms of the implementation of this policy:

- Looked After Children or Children in Need
- SEND • Children at risk of exclusion
- Children from an ethnic group, including those from Gypsy, Roma, Traveller background
- Children missing in education
- Children with medical conditions affecting attendance at school
- Are young carers
- Children within, or at risk of joining, the criminal justice system • Children with mental health issues
- Children in receipt of free school meals
- Children living in areas of deprivation
- Gifted and talented
- Are gender questioning or going through transition
- Children who are Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual or Transsexual

1.5 This policy and all associated procedures apply to all staff (including volunteers and students on placement), young people and visitors and should be read in conjunction with the following policies:

SEN, admissions, behaviour, exclusions, complaints, employment policies.

1.6 Failure to comply with these policies and procedures may result in disciplinary action. Discriminatory treatment, bullying or harassment of staff or students by visitors will also not be tolerated.

2 Compliance

2.1 This policy has been developed in response to the Equality Act 2010 and replaces previous policies relating to race, gender and disability equality. It has been designed to help the academy meet the duty to:

2.1.1 Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and other prohibited conduct.

2.1.2 Advance equality of opportunity between those who have a protected characteristic and those who do not.

2.1.3 Foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

2.2 The Equality Act 2010 defines nine protected characteristics, of which the following are potentially applicable to the academy community (students, staff and governors) are:

- Age (as an employer but not applicable to pupils)
- Disability
- Sex
- Gender reassignment
- Race
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation

2.3 Staff and local governors will:

- Actively promote equality of opportunity in all areas of school life.
- Ensure that members of the academy community know their rights, and respect the rights of others.
- Aim to ensure that prejudice or discrimination in all its forms is actively rejected.
- Raise awareness of equality issues for all members of the academy community, and through our links with the local community.
- Establish strategies to ensure equal access to the curriculum and enable each individual to fulfil his/her potential regardless of ability, gender, race, disability, religion or sexual orientation

2.4 Equality and diversity principles based on the above aims will be embedded in our daily practices, policies and the processes of decision-making, including:

- Admissions, induction and attendance.
- Pupils' progress and achievement.
- Pupils' personal development and wellbeing, particularly in relation to safeguarding.
- Parental involvement.
- Working with the wider community.
- Behaviour management.
- Staff recruitment and professional development.
- Curriculum access and participation.
- Teaching styles and strategies.

3 Publication of Information and Equality Objectives

3.1 The school acknowledges its legal duties to publish information on compliance with the three strands of the public sector equality duty and, in addition, to publish specific and measureable equality objectives. We have identified equality objectives that we will work on for the period of this policy. Please see separate Equality Objectives document.

3.2 The school will work across the school community to analyse data and existing practices to set out the actions taken in compliance of the equality duty and to inform the setting of relevant equality objectives to support the development of the school and its community.

3.3 The information on the equality duty will be updated annually and the objectives every 4 years. Publication of our Equality Action Plan takes place on the school's website.

4 Roles and responsibilities

4.1 The designated senior member of staff with overall responsibility for all equality and diversity matters at Blanford Mere Nursery and Primary School is the Head Teacher.

4.2 It is the responsibility of all staff to:

- Treat colleagues, young people and visitors with dignity and respect; and avoid behaving in any manner that may give rise to claims of discrimination, harassment or victimisation;
- Support and participate in any measures introduced to promote equality and diversity;
- Actively challenge discrimination and disadvantage in accordance with their responsibilities;
- Report any issues associated with equality and diversity in accordance with this policy.

5 Duty to make reasonable adjustments

We will actively seek to make reasonable adjustments, where there is a need to ensure that a disabled person has the same access to everything as a non-disabled person, as far as is reasonable. We will take positive and proactive steps to remove, reduce or prevent the obstacles faced by a disabled individual, as far as is reasonable.

6 Admissions policy Our admissions criteria are defined under the admissions policy and are applied consistently to every young person, irrespective of any protected characteristic.

7 Curriculum delivery

The curriculum is crucial to tackling inequalities for pupils including gender stereotyping, preventing bullying and raising attainment for certain groups. The principles of equality and diversity are embedded in our academic and social curriculum. Positive and proactive steps will be taken to prevent discrimination against, or victimisation of, any student in the provision of education or access to any benefit, facility or service including educational trips, work experience and leisure activities.

8 Exclusion policy

The decision to exclude a pupil for a fixed period or permanently is a last resort and will be made in accordance with the behaviour policy. That policy applies to all pupils and any exclusion decision will take into account our duties under the Equality Act 2020.

9 Recruitment and selection

9.1 All employees, whether part-time, full-time, temporary or permanent will be treated fairly and equally. We will avoid unlawful discrimination in all aspects of employment including recruitment, promotion, opportunities for training, pay and benefits, discipline and selection for redundancy. Selections will be made on the basis of aptitude, ability and/or merit, where appropriate.

9.2 Where appropriate, the school will endeavour to make all reasonable and effective adjustments during the recruitment and selection process. Where recruitment and selection are carried out, we will take all reasonable steps to ensure they adhere to the principles of this policy.

10 Reporting and recording incidents of discrimination and harassment

All incidents of discriminatory treatment, bullying and harassment must be reported to senior staff and recorded as soon as is reasonably possible (and in any event within 24 hours of the incident). All bullying-related incidents (confirmed or otherwise), will be addressed in accordance with each school's Anti-Bullying Policy.

11 Complaints and grievances

If an individual believes that they have been discriminated against, harassed or victimised, they are asked to follow our complaints or grievance procedure (as appropriate).

12 Implementation, monitoring, evaluation and review

12.1 The designated senior member of staff with overall responsibility for the implementation, monitoring and evaluation of the 'Equality and Diversity Policy' is the Head Teacher.

12.2 Additional support would also be provided to any parent or significant person, wishing to know more about the policy and procedures outlined above. A copy of this policy document is available for inspection on the premises during office hours and an electronic copy is posted on our website.

12.3 The Equality Policy will be reviewed on a three-year cycle by the following stakeholders:

- Pupils
- Parents
- Staff
- Governors

12.4 The effectiveness of this policy will be assessed using a self-evaluation framework and an assessment of progress against targets identified in the action plan together with stakeholder views. Following this evaluation, recommendations will be made for changes to the policy and action planning for the future to continue to improve the culture of equality for all within the school.
