Prior knowledge

- that everyone has different strengths, in and out of school
- about how different strengths and interests are needed to do different jobs
- about people whose job it is to help us in the community
- about different jobs and the work people do

National Curriculum Objectives

By the end of primary school:

Pupils should know

- the importance of respecting others, even when they are very different from them (for example, physically, in character, personality or backgrounds), or make different choices or have different preferences or beliefs.
- practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships.
- the conventions of courtesy and manners.
- the importance of self-respect and how this links to their own happiness.
- that in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others, and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including those in positions of authority.

By the end of this unit, I will be able to:

- about what money is and its different forms e.g. coins, notes, and ways of paying for things e.g. debit cards, electronic payments
- how money can be kept and looked after
- about getting, keeping and spending money
- that people are paid money for the job they do
- how to recognise the difference between needs and wants
- how people make choices about spending money, including thinking about needs and wants
