Year group: 6

Term: Autumn

Safe relationships

Recognising and managing pressure;
consent in different situations

Topic overview

Stay safe and know who to trust...

Remember to keep your privates private!

Prior knowledge

- to identify what physical touch is acceptable, unacceptable, wanted or unwanted in different situations
- how to ask for, give and not give permission for physical contact
- how it feels in a person's mind and body when they are uncomfortable
- that it is never someone's fault if they have experienced unacceptable contact
- how to respond to unwanted or unacceptable physical contact
- that no one should ask them to keep a secret that makes them feel uncomfortable or try to persuade them to keep a secret they are worried about
- whom to tell if they are concerned about unwanted physical contact

National Curriculum Objectives

By the end of primary school:

Pupils should know

- what sorts of boundaries are appropriate in friendships with peers and others (including in a digital context).
- about the concept of privacy and the implications of it for both children and adults; including that it is not always right to keep secrets if they relate to being safe.
- that each person's body belongs to them, and the differences

By the end of this unit, I will be able to:

- to compare the features of a healthy and unhealthy friendship
- about the shared responsibility if someone is put under pressure to do something dangerous and something goes wrong
- strategies to respond to pressure from friends including online
- how to assess the risk of different online 'challenges' and 'dares'
- how to recognise and respond to pressure from others to do something unsafe or that makes them feel worried or uncomfortable
- how to get advice and report concerns about personal safety, including online
- what consent means and how to seek and give/not give permission in different situations
