She invents the best games, paints the brightest pictures, jumps the highest, runs the fastest. But then - there isn't much competition when you're always on your own. Rapunzel stands out. Or she would, if anyone was there to see her. But she's been told that, just like her hair, she needs to be tamed before she can get ahead. The outside world just isn't ready for her yet. Meanwhile, across the city, all the young Prince wants is to be on his own. Overshadowed by his brother, he's never fitted in and he knows he'll never be the King everyone expects. On the evening of his coronation party he makes a run for it - straight to a lonely tower in the woods. Could this shy boy be the key to Rapunzel's freedom? Or is the world too much of a scary place to be yourself? Tickets cost £8 for adults and £5 for children. See the website for further details or to book tickets.	0	99
